

Name: _____

Date: _____

Post-Fieldtrip Quiz

Please answer the following questions using words from the word bank.

Scotch-Irish and Pennsylvania Dutch	Plantation
Ashtabula	Thomas Green Clemson
O.R. Broyles	Mary Anna Gibbes
Cotton	Cherokee

1. _____ is an Indian word meaning "fish river".
2. Ashtabula is a large _____ built in the 1800's located in Pendleton, South Carolina.
3. The _____ were the largest group of settlers in the Pendleton area.
4. _____ was a scientist and planter who once owned Ashtabula.
5. _____ was a brave young lady that earned the title "Heroine of the Stono".
6. _____ was a scientist and is responsible for establishing Clemson University.

7. One of the agricultural crops that were grown on the plantation, Astabula, was _____.
8. The _____ surrendered their land in the Hopewell treaties.

Please answer true or false.

___ 9. In the early 1800's, in Northeast South Carolina, all roads really did lead to Pendleton, South Carolina.

___ 10. The lack of railroad construction did not affect the growth of Pendleton as a city.

___ 11. Pendleton lost its status as a seat of government in 1826, when Pendleton District (renamed from Pendleton County in 1799) was divided into two new counties, Anderson and Pickens.

___ 12. Local planters established the Pendleton Farmers' Society was formed in 1815 to improve farming methods and stock breeding.

___ 13. The first five owners of Ashtabula were not well-educated gentlemen planters.

___ 14. In the early nineteenth century Pendleton, South Carolina was considered a resort town for wealthy families who lived in the Lowcountry.

___ 15. The Apache Native Americans lived in the Piedmont area.

Post Field Trip Quiz Answer Key

Fill in the blank.

1. Ashtabula is an Indian word meaning "fish river".
2. Ashtabula is a large plantation built in the 1800's located in Pendleton, South Carolina.
3. The Scotch-Irish and Pennsylvania Dutch were the largest group of settlers in Pendleton, South Carolina.
4. O.R Broyles was a scientist and planter who once owned Ashtabula.
5. Mary Anna Gibbes was a brave young lady that earned the title "Heroine of the Stono".
6. Thomas Green Clemson was a scientist and is responsible for establishing Clemson University.
7. One of the agricultural crops that were grown on the plantation, Ashtabula, was cotton.
8. The Cherokee surrendered their land in the Hopewell treaties.

True/False

T 9. In the early 1800's, in Northeast South Carolina, all roads really did lead to Pendleton, South Carolina.

F 10. The lack of railroad construction did not affect the growth of Pendleton as a city.

T 11. Pendleton lost its status as a seat of government in 1826, when Pendleton District (renamed from Pendleton County in 1799) was divided into two new counties, Anderson and Pickens.

T 12. Local planters established the Pendleton Farmers' Society was formed in 1815 to improve farming methods and stock breeding.

F 13. The first five owners of Ashtabula were not well-educated gentlemen planters.

T 14. In the early nineteenth century Pendleton, South Carolina was considered a resort town for wealthy families who lived in the Lowcountry.

F 15. The Apache Native Americans lived in the Piedmont area.